ITEM 8. REPORT OF THE CULTURAL AND COMMUNITY COMMITTEE - 16 OCTOBER 2017

ITEM 8.1

DISCLOSURES OF INTEREST

The Chair (The Lord Mayor) disclosed a less than significant, non-pecuniary interest in Item 8.3 on the agenda, as a person involved with the management of 107 Projects made a small donation to the Clover Moore Independent Team campaign at the 2016 City of Sydney elections.

Councillor Jess Scully disclosed a less than significant, non-pecuniary interest in Item 8.3 on the agenda, as a person involved with the management of 107 Projects made a small donation to the Clover Moore Independent Team campaign at the 2016 City of Sydney elections.

Councillor Jess Miller disclosed a less than significant, non-pecuniary interest in Item 8.3 on the agenda, as a person involved with the management of 107 Projects made a small donation to the Clover Moore Independent Team campaign at the 2016 City of Sydney elections.

Councillor Robert Kok disclosed a less than significant, non-pecuniary interest in Item 8.3 on the agenda, as a person involved with the management of 107 Projects made a small donation to the Clover Moore Independent Team campaign at the 2016 City of Sydney elections.

Councillor Kerryn Phelps disclosed a less than significant, non-pecuniary interest in Item 8.3 on the agenda, as a person involved with the management of 107 Projects made a small donation to the Clover Moore Independent Team campaign at the 2016 City of Sydney elections, which she was involved with at that time.

Councillor Philip Thalis disclosed a less than significant, non-pecuniary interest in Item 8.3 on the agenda, as a person involved with the management of 107 Projects made a small donation to the Clover Moore Independent Team campaign at the 2016 City of Sydney elections. He further disclosed that he has recently been made a Fractional Professor at UNSW and his daughter attends UNSW Art and Design as a student. Councillor Thalis further stated that neither he nor his daughter have been approached by UNSW in relation to this grant.

Councillor Linda Scott made two disclosures, as follows:

- a less than significant, non-pecuniary interest in Items 8.3 and 8.6 on the agenda, in that within the recommendations are grants for the University of Sydney, auspicing funding for the Seymour Centre and the Glebe Community Development Project. Councillor Scott stated that she is an employee of the University of Sydney, however, the two projects do not in any way relate to her employment, so her declaration is less than significant and non-pecuniary; and

- a significant, non-pecuniary interest in Item 8.6 on the agenda, in that she is an employee of the University of Sydney, and in that capacity has knowledge of a University research grant to which the item pertains. Councillor Scott stated that she would refrain from voting on this item.

No other Councillors disclosed any pecuniary or non-pecuniary interests in any matter on the agenda for this meeting of the Cultural and Community Committee.

The Cultural and Creative Sub-Committee recommends the following:-
