BACKGROUND

1. On 24 June 2004, the Central Sydney Planning Committee (CSPC) delegated authority to the City of Sydney for the determination of development applications involving variation to a development standard (SEPP1 variations) and costing less than $50 million. A report to the CSPC on the applications determined under the delegation is required on a minimum six-monthly basis. As the Department of Planning also requires a report of applications determined with variations to development standards on a quarterly basis, the report to the CSPC is scheduled to be submitted to the CSPC meeting following the end of each reporting period.
2. Seventeen applications were approved under delegation of the CSPC involving variation to a development standard during the period 1 April to 30 June 2012. Details of the applications determined during this period are in the table in Attachment A.
3. Fifteen of the 17 applications approved with SEPP1 variations in the quarter were located in Glebe or Forest Lodge, with one each in Pyrmont and Waterloo. Ninety-four per cent related to residential alterations and additions for floor space ratio or landscaping variations to the controls.
