PUBLIC NOTICES – PROPOSED ALCOHOL
RESTRICTIONS 2015

Public Notice

Proposed Alcohol Restrictions

Alcohol restrictions aim to prevent antisocial behaviour by prohibiting the consumption of alcohol in public spaces. Alcohol-free zones apply to streets, and alcohol prohibited areas apply to parks and other public places.

People found to be drinking within a designated alcohol-free zone or alcohol prohibited area can have their alcohol confiscated by police. All applications will expire on 2 July 2016. To view the proposal please visit sydneyoursay.com.au
