CITY OF SYDNEY INCLUSION (DISABILITY) ADVISORY PANEL TERMS OF REFERENCE 2016

(A) PREAMBLE

Diverse communities live and work in and visit Sydney. The Council of the City of Sydney values and respects its multicultural society, the diverse traditions, religious and spiritual practices, languages, abilities, sexual orientations and lifestyles of the people who make up Sydney.

The City of Sydney appreciates the contributions made by all people and believes that this diversity strengthens Sydney.

The City recognises the dignity and worth of all people by equitably treating communities and employees, fairly providing services, facilities and public spaces, by consulting with communities and making sure everyone can participate in decision-making.

We provide both broad-based and targeted services and programs to ensure that all members of the community have equal opportunity to develop to their full potential for economic, cultural and civic contributions and take an active part in community and social life.

The City works with communities to eliminate discrimination and disadvantage and to promote relationships that are based on understanding and respect. The City is working to achieve equity for the benefit of everyone.

The City is creating an environment of equity for all people regardless of their race, ancestry, place of origin, ethnic origin, (dis)ability, citizenship, creed, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, same sex partnership, age, marital status, family status, immigrant status, receipt of public assistance, political affiliation, religious affiliation, level of literacy, language and/or socio-economic status.
