Organisations Not Recommended

Organisation Name	Purpose of Organisation	Proposed Project
Notice Pty Limited trading as LMA (Laugh-Masters Academy) Pty Ltd	A comedy school and improvisation theatre offering improvisation and sketch comedy classes, improvisation based corporate training, and professional learning and development programs.	The organisation's already established improvisation and comedy sketch writing classes would be grown to meet demand and provide workshops and rehearsal facilities.
Realesteight Pty Ltd	A company providing affordable serviced offices, music and artistic based production, and sound studios.	Under the entity "Rainbow Anthology", a music artist development program designed specifically for the LGBTI community would be initiated in addition to expanding the organisation's music and sound facilities.
Red Line Productions Limited	An independent theatre company currently managing the Old Fitz Theatre in Woolloomooloo.	The creation of a creative hub involving production development and rehearsals whilst hiring the green screen facilities to film and community groups.
Space Gorilla Pty Ltd	A video production company working in traditional and new media forms including film, television, trans-media, multi-platform and interactive storytelling.	10 resident playwrights would be housed for a year, the organisation's 11 stage productions would use the facility to rehearse, and film and independent theatres would be provided with access to the green screen studio.
The House That Dan Built Incorporated	An arts company engaging young people to work with professional artists in the development and presentation of projects using innovative technologies and with a focus on showcasing the stories of female Australians from diverse backgrounds.	The organisation's networks would be engaged to further the various projects they are each conducting and provide the green screen studio to community groups at reduced rates.
We Are Good Company Pty Ltd	A company committed to creating accessible, progressive and sustainable culture and cultural communities within Sydney by enabling the creation, fostering and presentation of innovative endeavours.	The creation of an innovative cultural space to promote collaborative cultural communities, expand the networks of those participating, and the development and trial of the organisation's innovative business model.
