DECISION

BACKGROUND

Australia Post and Parliament House Security Office has requested consideration to remove the Mail Zone on the eastern side of Macquarie Street, between Shakespeare Place and Prince Albert Road, as it is no longer required.

COMMENTS

The kerb space on the eastern side of Macquarie Street, Sydney, at the subject location, is currently signposted as “Mail Zone Taxis Excepted 1 Minute Limit Set Down Only”. Parking adjacent to the Mail Zone to the north is signposted as Bus Zone and No Parking to the south.

On-site inspections show there is a need to reallocate the Mail Zone to No Parking as the Mail Zone is no longer required. By extending the adjacent No Parking restriction taxis will still be allowed to pick-up and drop-off passengers.

CONSULTATION

The proposal was consulted with Australia Post and Parliament House Security Office who raised no objection to the removal of the Mail Zone. The local community were not consulted as the proposal has no impact on parking for residents and businesses. Taxis will still be allowed to pick-up and drop-off passengers at this location.

FINANCIAL

Funds are available in the current budget.
