Chairperson

The Chairperson for the LPCTCC advised the Committee, the Lord Mayor Clover Moore and the Member for Sydney Alex Greenwich MP have written to the NSW Minister for Sport regarding free 'integrated ticketing' for events to be held at the new Sydney Football Stadium (SFS).

The Chair also requested an update from TfNSW regarding a promotional and education campaign to promote public transport and discourage driving and parking at the new SFS with the opening taking place on the 28 August 2022.

The TfNSW representative advised they will make enquiries and report back the Chair regarding an update.

Surry Hills PAC

Surry Hills PAC advised that Police conducted a site assessment of Moore Park Road pop-up cycleway ahead of the Community Open Day on Sunday 28 August for the new SFS and noted some debris from the pop-up cycleway that included fixtures/signage, loose concrete blocks, and general debris along the length of the pop-up cycleway from Moore Park Road to Oatley Road.

They have requested the City and Transport for New South Wales to arrange for the removal of all debris, and maintenance of the cycleway infrastructure prior to the Community Open Day.

City Staff will arrange for the debris along the pop-up cycleway from Moore Park Road to Oatley Road to be removed prior to the Community Open Day. TfNSW to arrange maintenance along the pop-up cycle way prior to the Community Open Day.

Sydney City PAC

Sydney City PAC requested the City to reinstate the "Keep Clear" Sign at the corner of Sussex Street and James Lane, Sydney to assist the Day Street Police Station.

City Staff to arrange for the reinstatement of the "Keep Clear" Sign at the corner of Sussex Street and James Lane, Sydney.

Sydney City PAC requested the City and TfNSW to investigate the fence along the garden verge between Slip Street and the Western Distributor in view to extend the existing fence line to discourage pedestrians from crossing the Distributor.

City Staff to liaise with TfNSW regarding the extension of the existing fence line along the garden verge between Slip Street and the Western Distributor.
