Item 8.2

Statement of Ethical Obligations and Disclosures of Interest

Councillor Jess Miller disclosed a significant, non-pecuniary interest in Item 8.4 on the agenda, in that her daughter is a member of the Glebe Greyhounds AFL Team.

Councillor Miller stated that she will not be voting on this matter.

Councillor Olly Arkins disclosed a less than significant, non-pecuniary interest in Item 8.4 on the agenda, in that she has relationships with individuals and organisations included in the Accommodation Grant Program lease application recommendations:

- Inner City Legal Centre (ICLC):
  - A community relationship with Katie Green, CEO of ICLC, who she has known since the lead up to the NSW Drug Summit. This is from Councillor Arkins' work in music festivals and ICLC program for free legal advice to festival goers and police powers.
  - Board member Jeremy Moineau through personal and professional networks.
  - Board member Jo Tilly, who she has known for over a decade as a fellow inner city activists. Councillor Arkins met Jo through her partner Penny Sharpe, a senior member of the NSW Labor Government. Red Tilly, Jo's son, also works in Councillor Arkins' office.
  - Board member Eden Tollis, who she has known for over a decade as he lived in a share house with a closer personal friend, and recently through his work at Sydney Film Festival.
- Board member of Jessie Street National Women's Library, Christine Kibble, who she has known through personal networks and as a Member of the Labor Party.
- Board members Peter Whitehead, Rory Sutton, Jo Holder and staff member Maggie Sangsong of Kings Cross Community Centre Inc, who she has known through personal relationships and as member of the Labor Part.
- Holly Robeiro, board member of the Older Women's Network, is a member of the Labor Party and ran on the City of Sydney Labor 2024 Council ticket as a Candidate.
- Kerry O'Brien, board member of Redfern Legal Centre Ltd, briefly lived in the same share house together in 2017.
- Peggy Dwyer, board member of Weave Youth & Community Services Ltd, met with Councillor Arkins a couple of time because of her time at Council assisting in the coronial inquest into 6 deaths at music festivals.

Councillor Arkins considers that this non-pecuniary conflict of interest is not significant and does not require further action in the circumstances as neither her or her staff have had contact with any of them about this item.

Councillor Sylvie Ellsmore disclosed a significant, non-pecuniary interest in Item 8.4 on the agenda, in that the recommendation includes endorsement of extension of the lease / grant to Inner Sydney Voice, for the space they currently occupy behind Waterloo library. She is a current member and former Treasurer of Inner Sydney Voice.

Councillor Ellsmore stated that she will not be voting on this matter.

No other Councillors disclosed any pecuniary or non-pecuniary interests in any matter on the agenda for this meeting of the Community Services and Facilities Committee.
