AUSTRALIA DAY 2022

Date: 26 January 2022 - 26 January 2022
Time: 4:00am - 11:59pm
Location: Sydney CBD and Milsons Point

Road Closures and Special Event Clearways will be in place on Wednesday 26 January 2022 in Sydney CBD, The Rocks, Dawes Point, Millers Point, Barangaroo, Milsons Point and Sydney Harbour for Australia Day in Sydney. The NSW Department of Premier and Cabinet plans and delivers Australia Day on behalf of the Australia Day Council.

Australia Day events take place throughout the day and evening in The Rocks and Darling Harbour. The event programme starts in the morning at 7:30am at Barangaroo Reserve and finishes at 9:30pm at Circular Quay. George Street will be closed between Essex Street and Lower Fort Street for activities in the Rocks from 4am to 11:59pm.

In 2022 traditional Harbour based activities such as the Tall Ships Race and Ferrython are scheduled to return. The Salute to Australia is due to take place at Hickson Road Reserve at 12pm.

The Australia Day celebrations are designed to comply with the current Covid-19 Public Health Order. The Australia Day Live! Broadcast at the Sydney Opera House forecourt area is scheduled to run from 7:30pm to 9:30pm. Multiple fireworks and Light displays are integrated into the program at 15 minute intervals from 8pm, culminating in the firework finale show between 9:15pm and 9:30pm. The Sydney Opera House, Circular Quay East and West and Campbell Cove foreshore of Sydney Cove - Circular Quay will be managed in accordance with current public health orders.

The event is contained to Sydney Cove and is not designed to be viewed from other areas of the harbour foreshore.
