City of Sydney Heritage Strategy

By Councillor Jarrett

It is resolved that:

- (A) Council note:
- (i) Sydney contains diverse Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultural and environmental heritage, and heritage constructed following European colonisation;
 - (ii) the City of Sydney Heritage Development Control Plan 2006 provides objectives and provisions for the development of buildings with heritage significance and establishes a framework for detailed heritage and conservation planning;
 - (iii) the City of Sydney provides the Heritage Floorspace Scheme which allows for the conservation management of heritage-listed buildings;
 - (iv) the Community Strategic Plan Delivering Sustainable Sydney 2030-2050 incorporates heritage into its framework but does not identify a specific heritage strategy;
 - (v) the City of Sydney has yet to formalise a long-term, future focused strategy to plan and maintain Sydney's heritage; and
 - (vi) the City of Melbourne, the City of Adelaide, the City of Perth, and the City of Newcastle have long-term heritage strategies that provide a framework to ensure heritage protection; and
- (B) the Chief Executive Officer be requested to:
- (i) investigate the possibility of creating a long-term Heritage Planning Strategy to safeguard the City's unique heritage aligned with the City of Sydney's Sustainable Sydney 2030-2050 Continuing the Vision; and
 - (ii) report back to Council with the implications of creating a long-term Heritage Planning Strategy including the strategic alignment, organisational impact, budget implications, and any other relevant considerations.
