Douglas Street Playground, Redfern

Looking into the park from Douglas Street – sightlines into the park area limited.

Looking into the park from Douglas Street - entry into the park is by a narrow and steep ramp.

The existing terraced sandstone blocks along the Douglas Street frontage – terraces will be retained, and planting areas along Douglas Street reconfigured to make the seating terraces more useable.

Existing play equipment in the park looking towards the rear western boundary - the existing play equipment includes a climbing structure and small slide, and a swing. The area of soft-fall takes up a lot of space, leaving a small area of grass.
