Background

The City of Sydney has received a request to move the existing Motor Bike Parking from Collins Street, Surry Hills into Richards Lane so as to improve parking in the adjacent area.

Comments

The City is considering a proposal to relocate motorbike parking from Collins Street, east of Richards Lane, around the corner into Richards Lane just south of Wilson's café. This action will increase the number of spaces for motorbikes from five to seven spaces.

It is also proposed to introduce "2P 8.3am-6pm Mon-Fri" in Collins Street, east of Richards Lane, in place of the existing motorbike restriction. These changes will provide one additional timed car parking space for the local community.

Consultation

The City consulted local residents and businesses in the area. There were eighty letters sent out with two responses supporting the proposal and no responses opposing the proposal.

Financial

Funds are available in current budget.
