<sup>1</sup> An actual conflict of interests is where there is a direct conflict between a member's duties and responsibilities and the private interests or other duties.

<sup>2</sup> A potential conflict of interests is where a panel member has a private interest or other duty that could conflict with the duties as a panel member in the future.

<sup>3</sup> A reasonably perceived conflict of interests is where a person could reasonably perceive that a panel member's private interests or other duties are likely to improperly influence the performance of the duties as a panel member, whether or not this is in fact the case.
