Advice

Advice will be updated after the meeting.

Background

A business on South Dowling Street, Waterloo has requested consideration of a Loading Zone in Murray Street to load and unload goods and deliveries safely.

Comments

The kerb space on the southern side of Murray Street, Waterloo west of South Dowling Street, where the changes are proposed, is currently unrestricted for parking.

On-site inspection shows there is a need to provide a "Loading Zone" to cater for local businesses as there are no other Loading Zones within easy walking distance.

An assessment on site shows trucks are unable to load and unload from within the business' due to the narrow road width of Murray Street. It is therefore proposed to convert one unrestricted parking space to "Loading Zone 8am-6pm Mon-Fri" which allows other businesses to share this space.

Consultation

The City consulted local residents and businesses in the area. There were 158 letters sent out with no responses supporting or opposing the proposal.

Financial

Funds are available in the current budget.
